VERY REV. WILLIAM J. MURPHY, S.J.

When the present graduating class—or its remnants—marches down the hill the last Sunday of February, we shall have arrived at the final curtain of the four-year college and the traditional arts curriculum. The immediate future is seen but darkly through the opaque medium of the Army Training Plan which has been in the process of becoming since Pearl Harbor. Inasmuch as time doesn't stand still, the colleges have had to improvise different plans to meet the shifting circumstances. Here at the College our program falls into four divisions. First there is the general two-year program which combines pre-induction subjects with whatever can be given of the arts and religion. The supposition underlying this course is that the general student will hardly be permitted to remain longer than two years. Those who can do so will be able to complete about two-thirds of the standard college course. The second group consists of the naval reservists who will be able to complete two-thirds or even the entire course according to time schedules already announced by the Navy Department. The third division is composed of those who are majoring in science; the present prospect is that they will be permitted to complete their training depending, of course, on the interpretations of the Draft Boards. A special curriculum will take care of pre-medical students. Perhaps too, one should include pre-theological students and the very few who are deferred because of some physical disability. The definitive publication of the Army and Navy Training plans will undoubtedly make necessary some further changes in these programs. It is generally understood that, in addition to its general Training Plan, the Army will call for relatively brief courses to train men in the specific technical fields.

From these strands one can place together an outline of what the typical urban college looks like at the present with some general idea of the future war organization. More interesting, perhaps, would be an outline of the post-war college; but to draw that would require a gift of prophecy. I would not wish to hazard a guess as to the ultimate effect of the deep changes which are now taking place. Much has been written on the advisability of lopping a year or two from the four-year college. But this involves a complete reorganization of the educational system from the graduate to the grade school. So far there has been little disposition on the part of all concerned to grapple with the problem. The principle of acceleration may very well remain to eliminate the long summer vacation. More important than the time element will be the character of post-war education. If this war proves to be the final challenge of the utilitarian and materialistic philosophies which have ruled the past century, the liberal arts which have been more and more diluted for the past decades will return to a purer and more vigorous life. But if victory means a stronger assertion of the supremacy of the useful, the arts will become even more anemic with education stressing science, technology, commerce and vocational training. In spite of the idealism of the declaration of the war aims, there are still many reasons to make us doubtful of the ultimate resolution of forces.

Sports

By JOHN LARNER, '43

✶ Since the draft commission came out with the statement that crystal gazers are not essential to America's defense, I have been brought to see the error of the labyrinthine ways of the accult profession. For, in the last issue, I concluded my deathless prose with a look-see on the B.C. team's visit to New Orleans, the land of the bayou, and the place where all our sugar isn't. For the government it can be said it's about time such clairvoyancy is to be stopped.

It is indeed fortunate that Uncle Sam has again rushed to my defense by banning all descriptions of weatherly movements in Boston and Miami. Therefore, to delate the second step in the syllogistic process, the tornado that Holy Cross manufactured, and the simpoon started by Alabama do not have to be mentioned here. Thanks to the O. W. I.

It might be mentioned that the sun has risen after those two storms since the Varsity Club held its annual dinner on Jan. 10th. More than 700 loyal adherents did not chuck away the ghost after the body itself was riddled in final game defeats.

The Varsity Dinner was a worthy occasion. They served steak, a species of meat which civilians now remember as an edible once partaken before coffee was served at any man sized meal. Latest rumors have it, gents, that steak and coffee are the two latest rarities to be put on exhibition at Smithsonian Institute starting next month.

That wasn't all, however. Tom Scanlan, Miah Falvey and an array of other B stalwarts crated, with Joe McKenney acting as toastmaster. Comdr. Tom Hamilton spoke forcefully for resuming football schedules next fall, and the hall was filled with solemn silence when the Comdr. John J. Shea memorial painting was unveiled at the gathering.

At the dinner Rev. Maurice Dullea, S.J., faculty moderator of athletics, made his last official appearance as A.A. head. He is now Rector of Cranwell Prep in Lenox, Mass.

At Boston College next season, if the government permits it, there most likely will be football. John P. Curley has a schedule all set, practically the same as last year's, but he is waiting to see which way the wind is blowing because, you see, as we are not allowed to tell you about atmospheric conditions, we can't say for sure which way it is going.

It would be best to keep your eyes peeled to 1944 and the schedule lined up for that year. It is of southern fried variety, tasty and tempting. If you were wondering what Alabama teams are like, there will be one chance; if you still wonder about Tennessee, it's another chance; and there are other tasty morsels still lined up for the season after next.

Coach John Temple, ('31) has taken over Snooks Kelley's place as mentor of the hockey team. His teams have been doing all right with Greater Boston opposition, defeating Northeastern twice and B. U. Dartmouth, however, has wah-hoo-wahed twice over the Eagles, 14-2 in the First Battle of Boston and 6-5 in the Hanover campaign.

With the track forces, the bells are not ringing very loudly. Jack Ryder has come up with one star, Herb McKenley of the West Indies, who is a dashman whizzer capable of making national fame for himself in his freshman year. Tom Grehan, John Carusone, Frank Harris and Jim Kelleher are the best of a small track squad.

Baseball will function through the spring at University Heights supporting the Hamilton plan, but with the physical training course in effect at the College, the Gene Tunney plan of training is not being overlooked. Obstacle courses and wall scaling, reservoir runs and the like are the order of John Conroy's program.

School being in session during most of the summer months will allow B.C. to field a team that will schedule all service teams available and also the local colleges. Classes being geared the way they are, with slide rules and test tubes present in one corner, Cicero and Shakespeare in the other, baseball will be right in the middle. But sports will go on at University Heights.

FROM THE DESK OF THE ALUMNI PRESIDENT

☛ You are reminded that the final date for contributions to the Loyalty Fund for 1942-43 is April 1. It is definite that your Alumni Association cannot flourish unless it is supported by your contributions; it will not survive unless we on the Home Front support it generously.

For obvious reasons the annual Communion Sunday with Masses in each of the local communities will not be observed this year. If plans are made for a Memorial Mass for all alumni, you will be notified.

COMMENCEMENT

☛ The class of 1943, the second war class, will be graduated almost four months earlier than usual on Sunday, February 28. For the first time in many years the exercises will be held at the Immaculate Conception Church, at 3.30 P.M. Cardinal O'Connell will preside. Approximately 240 seniors in the College of Arts and Sciences, and 54 in the School of Business Administration will receive degrees. Many will receive them "in absentia" because they have already entered the services. Rev. Leonard Feeney, S.J., has accepted the invitation to address the graduating class.

There will be no Baccalaureate exercises. The program for the class is: Retreat, Feb. 23-25; Class Banquet, Feb. 26; Class Day, Feb. 27; Commencement, Feb. 28.

LAW SCHOOL

☛ Rev. William J. Kenealy, S.J., dean of the Law School, has been granted a leave of absence to enter military service. Serving as a chaplain he has been commissioned a lieutenant in the Navy.

Mr. William J. O'Keefe, a member of the faculty, has been appointed acting dean for the duration.

FRESHMAN CLASS

☛ Two hundred freshmen entered the College and Business School February 1. They consisted of students who had completed one half of their fourth year of high school. Upon successful completion of the first semester at the College they will receive their high school diplomas.

These new students are taking a two year course for which a degree will not be granted. However, if at the end of the course they wish to continue their studies, they may do so until they have fulfilled all requirements requisite for a degree. Under the accelerated program this would mean about one further year of study.

WAR SERVICE ADVISORY BUREAU

☛ When the rules governing enlistments in the different branches of the armed forces went into effect recently the Bureau automatically ceased to function. From March 3 to December 10, 1942, 635 Boston College men were interviewed. The total number of interviews granted to all New England college graduates was 10,774.

The Association expresses its appreciation to the graduates who kindly gave their time acting as interviewers.

HONOR ROLL

☛ Last November in the basement of the Tower Building two lounge rooms for the convenience of the students were formally opened. One contains the Boston College Honor Roll with the names of the students and graduates in the services. The rooms and Honor Roll are worthy of inspection when visiting the Heights.

The authorities have had a beautiful card designed in color and are sending it to every known Boston College man in the services. It has aroused general admiration. If you are in some military branch, and you have not received a card, please write Rev. Michael J. Pierce, S.J. He will be happy to send you one with your name inscribed on it.

WAR LABOR BOARD

☛ It was announced recently that Rev. Walter S. McGuinn, S.J., dean of the Boston College School of Social Work, has been appointed a member of the New England War Labor Board.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION CHANGES

☛ Shortly after the Varsity Club dinner, which brought the football season to an end, it was announced that Rev. Maurice V. Dullea, S.J., faculty moderator of athletics, had been chosen Rector of Cranwell Prep at Lenox, Mass.

This month Denny Myers, head football coach, received a commission as lieutenant in the United States Naval Reserve. He is on active duty at Chapel Hill.

THE WAR

✶ As the war continues the most prominent figure at the Heights is Lady Rumor. There are more confidential reports about this that or the other branch of the service taking over than there are students. The only rumor with any substance was that the College might close because of lack of oil. At that, the upper part of the Library Building was closed just for a couple of days.

Twenty-eight seniors were called to active duty by the Marine Corps in December. Effective March 1 the majority of the students in the Army Reserve will be called to duty. About thirty students have enlisted in the Navy as members of the Commander John J. Shea Squadron.

Last November the number of Boston Col-

In the name of the President of the United States, The Commander-in-Chief, United States Pacific Fleet, takes pleasure in presenting the NAVY CROSS to

MAJOR JOHN F. DOBBIN, U. S. MARINE CORPS
for service as set forth in the following

CITATION:

"For extraordinary heroism and distinguished service in the line of his profession as a Fighter Plane Pilot and Squadron Executive Officer. On September 14, 1942, he took off from Henderson Field, Guadalcanal Island, Solomon Islands, leading his division in response to the air raid signal. Upon being informed that twenty single engine seaplanes were strafing the field, and with no visible horizon and greatly reduced visibility due to darkness coming on, he gave the attack through heavy anti-aircraft fire. Within ten minutes he had, unaided, shot down three of the enemy aircraft. Prior to this action he had shot down two twin engine enemy bombers and one type "zero" fighter for a total of six planes shot down. His courage, skill, and leadership are in keeping with the highest traditions of the Naval Service."

Admiral, U. S. Navy.

lege men serving our country totaled 1,300. As this issue goes to press there are 1,903.

Since the beginning of the war ten men have died, seven are missing, and seven have been wounded.

The following report is based on information received since November.

Deceased

Ensign John A. O'Toole, '39, U. S. N. R. The first Boston College graduate to die in Africa. The landing barge he commanded was approaching the French Moroccan coast when it was fired on by a concealed French battleship. He was buried in Fedala, near Casablanca, French Morocco.

Captain Edward L. Foley, '39, U. S. M. Killed in action somewhere in the Solomons about November 5.

Lt. Henry H. Connolly, '37, U. S. N. Died of meningitis while on duty at the Chelsea Naval Hospital. He enlisted in the Naval Medical Corps in August, 1941.

Ensign William T. Donovan, '41, U. S. N. Killed in action in Africa. Details are not available. He was commended for performing his duty in a meritorious manner when United States forces landed at Algiers. Shortly afterward his ship was torpedoed. His brother is John J. Donovan, ex-'39.

Missing in Action

Lt. Thomas M. Roddy, ex-'39, U. S. N. Stationed on the U. S. S. Juneau, Lt Roddy has been missing since his ship was sunk by the enemy in the Pacific in October.

Wounded

Lt. Arthur F. McQuaid, ex '27, U. S. N. Father McQuaid, a chaplain from the Boston Diocese, was wounded while on duty somewhere in the Pacific. He is recuperating.

Lt. Walter H. Cuenin, '41, U. S. M. Wounded while on duty in the Solomons.

Victor E. Ouimet, '33, U. S. N. R.
Missing

Capt. Edward L. Foley, '39, U. S. M. C.
Killed in Solomons

Lt. Francis J. MacDonald, S.J.
Overseas

Lt. Norman R. Pilote, '39, Army. Wounded while flying over England with the Army Air Corps. He is recovering.

Honors

Lt. John J. Lynch, '33, U. S. N. Lt. Lynch was stationed on the aircraft carrier the Hornet when it was sunk by the enemy in October off the Santa Cruz Islands in the Pacific. He has received all three Navy awards for heroism. For obtaining two bomb hits on Jap heavy cruisers in the battle of Midway he won the Navy Cross. At the battle of Santa Cruz Islands he hit a Jap heavy cruiser, for which he received the Navy Air Medal. The Distinguished Flying Cross was awarded to him for sinking a Jap submarine off the Solomons in September. His brother is Daniel J. Lynch, '25.

Major John F. Dobbin, '33, U. S. M. C. Major Dobbin, an ace Marine aviator, received the Navy Cross for bravery in the defense of Henderson Field, Guadalcanal. He has since returned to this country and is stationed in the South. His father is Louis J. Dobbin, '08.

Corp. James D. McLaughlin, '41, Army. It has been reported that Corporal McLaughlin was cited for bravery under fire at Hickham Field during the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Lt. John J. Gately, '41, U. S. M. C., wounded Guadalcanal. He has received the Silver Star for bravery.

In The News

Lt. Edward J. McPherson, ex '40, Army Air Corps. Lt. McPherson was with the American flyers who bombed Lille, France, last year. On New Year's Day he was on the "Daisy Chain Gun" when our aviators bombed Tunis and Bizerte.

Thomas J. Flanagan, '42. Mr. Flanagan is a civilian flyer in the employ of Pan American Airways. He was fourth officer of the crew that made twelve crossings of the South Atlantic in thirteen days and fifteen hours, establishing a new world's record.

Father J. Joseph Daly, ex '30, has become a chaplain in the Navy with the rank of lieutenant (j.g.) Father Daly was in Korea with the Maryknoll Fathers when war broke out. Last August he returned to this country on the Gripsholm in an exchange of American and Japanese prisoners.

Father John W. Comber, ex '27, is interned at Fushun, China. It is expected he will return home in the next exchange of prisoners.

Father Peter A. Reilly, ex '35, is at Wuchow, China. He helped an American aviator to escape when the latter's plane, a P-40, was forced down. Fathers Comber and Reilly also belong to the Maryknoll Order.

In the name of the President of the United States, The Commander-in-Chief, United States Pacific Fleet, takes pleasure in presenting the DISTINGUISHED FLYING CROSS TO

for service as set forth in the following

CITATION:

"For extraordinary achievement while participating in aerial flight in the line of his profession as a pilot of a bombing plane during the operations of the United States naval forces on September 6, 1942. Upon sighting an enemy submarine on the surface he immediately attacked and as a result of his quick thinking, prompt action and accurate bombing caused the destruction of the submarine. His conduct was in keeping with the highest traditions of the Naval Service."

C. W. NIMITZ,
Admiral, U. S. Navy.

Parade of the Classes

CLASSES UP TO 1914

☛ "Boston lost a great citizen, Boston College a great alumnus, in the death of the Honorable Joseph F. O'Connell, more familiarly and affectionately known as "'Joe O'Connell.'" His sudden death came as a special shock to all those who gathered at the University Club the previous Monday evening to celebrate with him the passing of his seventieth birthday. The gathering was a notable one.

It was a tribute to the esteem, respect and affection which this man commanded from all who knew him in life. The lowly and the humble as well as those who sit in the seats of the mighty, the leaders of the professional and civic life of Boston were all there.

Joe O'Connell was a friend who always came in when the rest of the world went out. In the love of the land of his forefathers he was as Irish as Killarney yet as American as Thanksgiving, and as solid as Plymouth Rock. A student of history, especially the history of the land and ancient culture of his forebears, he had few equals and no superiors in Boston. He had something unique to offer to the world,—a learned and sound legal mind, combined with great business sagacity, a combination as rare as it was valuable. The greatest contribution one can make to the sum total of things is to give himself, his entire self. This Joe O'Connell always gave to every cause he ever championed. He was indeed the happy warrior, he 'whom every man in arms should wish to be.'

To those who knew him best and loved him most, Life will never seem quite the same without Joe O'Connell in it."—(Remarks by James A. Dorsey, '94, on the occasion of Mr. O'Connell's death).

In the last issue it was stated that the class of 1904 had given a chalice to the college in memory of James A. Crowley. Mr. Miller, '04, kindly points out that this chalice was given by a committee of Mr. Crowley's friends and co-workers which included the class of 1904. It was not purely a class matter.

Henry T. Powers, '08, living in Rockville Centre, N. Y., has been the New York representative for the last twenty years of the Milton Bradley Company of Springfield. One son, Henry, is a member of the U. S. Purchasing Commission in Rio de Janeiro. His second son, Richard, is with the Marines. He also has a daughter who is married.

Lt. Colonel Edmund Sliney is still at Fort Shafter, T. H.

Lt. General Hugh Drum, ex-'01, recently received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from Georgetown University.

1914

JOHN S. KEOHANE

12 Acacia Avenue, Chestnut Hill

☛ The class was well represented at the Varsity Football Dinner. Jack Kapples, Treasurer of the Lincoln Stores, sponsored a table for ten of his Quincy friends.

Dr. Frank Devlin, our Brighton dentist, and Albert Shaughnessy, headmaster of the Oliver Hazard Perry School District, both too infrequently with us, were welcomed by the class. One of the highlights of the evening was the eloquent oration and tribute to Commander Shea by Edward A. Sullivan, president of Solem Teachers' College. "Superb" was George Carrens' comment in the Boston Traveler.

Dr. Tom Reid, our other dentist, was busy reminiscing about his football days at the Heights.

Congratulations and best wishes to the new pastors of our class. For the benefit of their friends we list their assignments: Rt. Rev. Robert P. Barry, LL.D., Pastor, St. Clement's, West Somerville; Rev. Charles I. Browne, Pastor, St. Francis', Belfast, Maine; Rev. Patrick J. Dawson, Pastor, Sharon; Rev. Frederick J. Deasy, Pastor, Hopkinton; Rev. William J. Desmond, Pastor, East Lexington; Rev. Thomas F. Devlin, Pastor, West Bridgewater; Rev. Thomas L. Ford, Pastor, East Bridgewater; Rev. T. C. Gleason, Pastor, Medway; Rev. Thomas J. Heogney, Pastor, 1909 South Ashland Avenue, Holbrook; Rev. Edward L. Hughes, O.P., Pastor, St. Pius, Chicago, Ill.; Rev. John J. Joyce, Pastor, St. Peter and Paul, South Boston; Rev. Edward J. McLaughlin, Pastor,

South Hamilton; Rev. Thomas F. Murphy, Pastor, 58 Nantasket Avenue, Nantasket; Rev. Thomas J. Sullivan, S.J., Professor, Weston College, Weston; Rev. David Twomey, O.S.B., Dean, St. Anselm's College, Manchester, N. H.

"Barney" MacDonald, Function Manager at The Latin Quarter, Boston, has his four sons in U. S. A. forces, one in the Navy Southwest Pacific, one in the Army Air Corps, Santa Ana, California, one in the Naval Air Corps at Detroit, one recently drafted, at Camp Devens. Incidentally, recently married again. Congratulations, Barney!

John Mahoney is rounding out 25 years with the Boston Traveler; incidentally, the father of 11 children.

Bill O'Sullivan sent his oldest daughter, Mary, off with a grand wedding recently. It was an elaborate affair, and although he lost a daughter he gained a son, William Finucane (Holy Cross).

Ed J. Coogan at the Registry of Motor Vehicles had very few classmates looking for number plates this year — there were none to be had. He says, "The only time I see the boys is around New Year's. This year, nobody but 'Barney.'"

It was good to hear and see Tom O'Hare at the Class Reunion. His talk on government and taxes was very interesting.

PHILIP J. BOND

18 Houston Street, West Roxbury

☛ Father George F. Wiseman, senior curate at St. Mary's Church, Winchester, recently published a book, "Kwangsi, The Land of the Black Bonners." (B. Herder Book Co., $2.75). It is the story of the missions of Kwangsi, South China, where he spent five years. All royalties will go to the poor missions of China. Members of the class and others are urged to give the book as much publicity as possible.

The success of Boston's recent President's Birthday Ball was due in large measure to the efforts of Edmund J. Brandon, Chairman of the Boston Committee, and U. S. Attorney.

The sympathy of the class is extended to Thomas F. Gavin in the death of his father last October, and to John J. Walsh, who lost his father in January.

The class was grieved to learn of the death of one of its most respected members, Dr. John J. Lucy of Belmont.

Congratulations to Father Thomas L. Boland, recently appointed pastor of the Sacred Heart Parish of South Natick.

It is a pleasure to report that Edward S. Farmer and Robert J. Burns are again stepping out on high after their previously reported accidents.

Frederick L. Shea is rounding out twenty-five years of teaching experience at the Lynn Classical High School.

1916

JAMES L. O'BRIEN

41 Pandred Circle, Jamaica Plain

Our 27th annual banquet was held at the University Club on December 28. Thirty-three members were present, an excellent representation, considering present day conditions. At the banquet the class voted to give a Memorial Medal to the best B. C. player in the annual Holy Cross game. The class also sent a bouquet to Pat Geary who had been sick at the Carney Hospital. It sponsored a table for the Varsity Club Dinner, and contributed an ad to the 1943 Sub Turri.

Jim Duffy has been elected president of the Gridiron Club of Boston.

Jack O'Keefe, George Kehoe and Bill Murphy have sons at the college. Joe Hurley's son will graduate in February.

Fred Gillis's boy is overseas with the Army.

Jim Linnehan is a judge in Rhode Island, and a law partner of ex-Governor Quinn.

Lt. George Casey is at Camp Flara, Miss., assigned to the chaplains' branch, Ordnance Unit Training Center.

Father Gerald Fitzgerald, O.S.C., has resigned as Superior of the Notre Dame Seminary at North Easton and is now a chaplain in the Army.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Father Logue, S.J., on the loss of his brother, and to Father James Brennan, S.J., on the loss of his mother. Father McCrory, S.J., has announced that the Retreat House will be open after March 1, and that he has scheduled our retreat for April 30th to May

2nd. He wants to know if this date will be satisfactory. If you are planning to attend, will you let me know at your earliest convenience?

JOHN J. MAHONEY

7 Avery Road, Wellesley, Mass.

Prominent in the graduation exercises of St. Francis College, Loretto, Pa., last month was Bishop Cushing who addressed the graduates and received an honorary degree of Doctor of Letters.

Father Maurice Dullea has been appointed rector of Cranwell Hall, Lenox. All are sorry that he is leaving the Heights and send their best wishes with him in this new endeavor.

Father John Connolly who has directed the activities of the Guild for the Blind was made very happy recently when the diocese purchased an estate in Newton for the use of the members. Represents another advance in the progress of the Guild under his guidance during the last six years.

Ed Tracy reported that Ed McMullin has been commissioned a major in the Marine Corps. Reported last month. Boston loses one of its "best dressed" for the duration. Ed has been the Boston representative of Cluett, Peabody for nearly twenty years.

Speaking of health brings us to the pneumonia episodes of John Flynn and Frank Heanue. An epidemic of the virus species of the pneumococci laid them low. John's bug was more considerate than the one that met Frank inasmuch as it waited until the football season was ended to get in its work. Happy to report that both have since found themselves able to stand the strain of doing a day's work.

We are all glad to know that Father Joseph A. Quigley has returned to his duties after a spell of illness.

Father Albert Shea, stationed at St. James' Church, Boston, responded when the call came to administer to the victims of the Coconut Grove disaster. As one of a number of priests who worked at the scene of the tragedy throughout the night his services received wide mention in the Catholic press.

Rev. Paul H. Furfey has published another book, "A History of Social Thought." (Macmillan, $2.75).

FRANCIS J. ROLAND

11 Beacon Street, Boston.

The number of those answering Uncle Sam's call continues to grow: Lt. Col. Joseph F. McNamara, Captain Henry J. Barry, Lt. Bernard F. Donovan, Gerry Cleary and Gus Whalen are in.

Ed Danehy is also at Cambridge Latin, teaching and acting as assistant to the headmaster.

Jim Manning is still teaching at Rindge Tech. Jim was manager of varsity football in Ante-Bawl Daze-1918.

Fred Shea is working long hours as Chief Adjudication Officer of the Veterans' Bureau, Boston. His son graduates from B. C. High this year. Rev. Vincent R. Hughes, O.P., S.T.L., Ph.D., has been appointed pastor of St. Dominic's Church in Denver, Colorado. He is an important figure in the Dominican Order.

Walter A. "Dida" Falvey is New England manager of the Lehigh Portland Cement Co., and the proud father of three. His exceptional loyalty to Alma Mater persists and, if possible, increases with the passing years.

Hitler drove "Zack" Kennedy out of Paris and as far west as South Boston, his point of origin.

The condolences of the class are extended to Rev. Edward T. Douglas, S.J., in the death of his mother. Hardly more than one year remains before our TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY. How about a little preliminary activity or arrangements, class officers?

1920

J. ROBERT BRAWLEY

30 Garden Street, West Roxbury

Dr. Edmond A. Willis who was with us in Freshman year is practicing in Owensboro, Kentucky.

Capt. Bill Lyons is stationed at the St. Louis Arsenal, St. Louis, Mo.

John McNamara is with Pratt and Whitney, living at Rockville, Conn.

1921

GORDON F. IRONS

9 Emmonsdale Road, West Roxbury

Father Dave McDonald is in the Navy somewhere overseas.

Jerry Mahoney did a great job as chairman of the public service group during the United War Fund Campaign.

Charlie Coyle was chairman of events of the United War Fund drive.

Dr. Irving Gregory is now a captain in the Medical Corps of the Coast Artillery at Fort Banks, Winthrop.

Jimmy Gookin is in the Army at Camp Berkeley, Texas, where there is a gigantic medical replacement training center.

Ralph L. Monks, vice-principal of the Agassiz District in Boston, has been granted a military leave of absence by the Boston School Committee.

John B. Magoldi, Italian interpreter in Central Court for 22 years, was recently sworn in by Secretary of State F. W. Cook as probation officer.

John B. Donahue, editor of "Columbia," is keeping up the high standard of that magazine.

Frank DeCelles is a lieutenant, senior grade, in the naval intelligence service. He has recently been in Africa.

Merry Mahoney would like the names of all our classmates in the service. Also, please send along any changes in address.

1922

NATHANIEL J. HASENFUS
5 Kirk Street, West Roxbury

 We may be over twenty years out of B. C. but we are still young—"Look at the record." Frank Flynn, pugler in the S. A. T. C. in '18, is now First Lieutenant in the Air Corps at Miami — so is George McKim; William Whall is at Fort Meade, Maryland; Father Leonard McMahon is now a Lieutenant in the Navy, assigned to Philadelphia; Capt. Leo Motley of the Marines is at Quantico. He was up to the Georgetown game.

Major James Caffrey is in Europe, as is also Major Timothy McInerney.

Henry Cunningham, Jr., is now Lieutenant, senior grade, in Rhode Island. At the class table at the Varsity Club dinner were White, Sheehan, Father Jim Doyle, Verlado, Healy, and Bell.

George Kearns has a new arrival — number ten. Congratulations, George! Bill Sheehan served as senior Vice-Chairman of the Public Service Division of the United War Fund.

1923

FRANCIS L. FORD

26 Ellison Avenue, Dorchester

 The annual Laetare Sunday Communion Breakfast of the class will not take place this year — and possibly for the duration. For the past two years we have affiliated with the breakfast of the Brighton-Newton-Allston Boston College Clubs, but these clubs have decided to forego the gathering because of the many difficulties in their path. However, each member can make his own Laetare Sunday, and not forget the souls of our glorious, departed Jesuit professors of two decades ago.

It is also quite possible that our annual banquet may meet a similar cancellation because of war privations striking more closely to us daily. If you do not hear from us, try (?) having a steak at home.

Our invitation to the ex-members of the class bore fruit recently in a communication from Major John McCloskey, C. A. C., who is stationed in the Canal Zone. Major McCloskey wished to be remembered to Ed Garrity, Bevo McGady, Major Finnegan, Gerry Caughlin, Ed Dullea, Harry Mullowney, and good friend, William Barry.

Ed Fogarty, for 16 years a teacher of English at the Dorchester High School for Boys, will soon be commissioned in the U. S. Navy. He was sent in December to Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, for indoctrination studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Comerford (Tony to all of us) are now entertaining their friends at 257 Foster Street, Brighton.

Lieutenant, s. g., Owen A. Gallagher of the Navy, has been sent on special duty to the Pacific Fleet. He was last heard from in San Francisco.

Lieutenant Commander Joseph Delaney and Owen, by the way, met on one of the important naval operations in the Atlantic in the not far distant past.

Walter Dimmock tells us that his Marine son, our class baby, has been heard from in action in the South Pacific. In good fettle according to the latest letter.

Edmund T. Garrity, Jr., son of our "Big Ed" is attending Exeter Academy where he has the colossal assignment of holding the fort for B. C. against tremendous odds. If he doesn't do a good job, he had better not come home. His father renewed old acquaintances with Connie Flynn, '21, in New York recently.

We were glad to see Lieutenant Gaynor Wellings, senior grade, in these parts at the Christmas holidays. Gay is still at Cape May, N. J.

Our sincerest condolences go out to Joe Crane in the recent passing of his father, the well-known and beloved Hugh Crane. Requiescat in pace.

If we have not mentioned it before, Johnnie Keyes is now in the U. S. Navy.

NOTA BENE! We are the 20 year class. With things in such a state as they are, they may not be an Alumni Day this year. In any event, we should not forget the traditional testimonial for Father Rector. Put something aside until you hear our call.

1925

WILLIAM ARTHUR REILLY

14 Arborway, Jamaica Plain

 George Verde has been appointed Assistant Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston and is now doing trial work exclusively in his new position. On January 1st the eminent Boston law firm of Lyne, Woodworth & Everts announced that Albert L. Hyland had become a member of the firm—thus, another lawyer of the class takes a position among the eminent barristers of our city.

Anthony Julian of 31 Marcia Road, Watertown, Town Counsel, and Chairman of the Advisory Board to Selective Service Board 15 of Watertown, was accepted into the Army recently and, as a member of the Draft Board, he had the unique experience of inducting himself into the Army.

Steve Patton is Chief Air Raid Warden in South Boston.

Dr. Arthur Clancy of Lowell is seen frequently in Boston as a result of his professional duties as a member of the visiting staff at the Boston City Hospital.

Thomas Quilty is a member of the Second Recruit Detachment, 240th Coast Artillery, and a recent communication was received from him at Fort McKinley, Maine.

Jim O'Rourke's latest address is 8125, Fleet P. O., San Francisco, Cal.

1926

WILLIAM J. CUNNINGHAM

40 Tennyson Street, West Roxbury

☞ Despite the war and regardless of the numbers to appear, the annual class dinner will be held on Saturday evening at the Hotel Kenmore, night of February 20. Notices will not be sent out, except this bulletin notice, to the men outside Metropolitan Boston, because of wartime transport conditions.

Johnnie Cohan has been acting manager of the Ralindale Ration Board during the manager's illness. Doing an excellent job on a busy board.

Joe Hughes got his first short leave. The army took a few pounds off him. Saw Pap Regan that night at the train, waiting to welcome our ball club back to Boston. Also Frank "Horace" Greelish, now at Springfield with the Federal Government. Passed the bar, you know.

Capt. Bob O'Doherty, on his second leave since entering service, was at that grand Varsity B Dinner, as was Jim Nagle, still not in the army, John Dorsey, John Dooley, Murray Regan, Walter Morris et al. Hope I misse a one.

Don't forget our Class Endowment Fund. Send along $5.00 to Treasurer Jim Hickey.

Father Joseph Brennon is still at the Sacred Heart Church on Mt. Auburn Street in Watertown and would welcome a visit from any of the boys who are in the vicinity.

Eddie McKeon has bought out the insurance business of U. S. Young in Watertown Square. Ed still handles real estate when some bank loosens the strings on a little mortgage money.

FRANCIS X. SULLIVAN

51 Presentation Road, Brighton

☞ Last issue's appeal for news fell on deaf ears. To those who do send in some news we will reward them with an extra pound of butter and a secret map to where some coffee is cached. To those who won't, we will publish a list of the canned goods they failed to declare when they applied for their Number Two Ration Book.

The December 13 edition of the Globe contained a picture of the football coaches of Melrose, Medford, Winchester and English High. Yes, our genial, smiling friend Bill Ohrenberger's team did the usual this year again. When English doesn't win the City championship it is news. The service continues to attract our classmates. The latest recruit is Lieut. Dan O'Connell, U. S. Air Corps, who left recently for Miami, Florida, to enter training there.

Jack Buckley continues to make a name for himself as a writer of skits and tuneless ditties. His apus put on at the Boston Schoolmen's Economic Association's dinner last fall broke the applause meter. So we now have Jack to pair up with Bill Mornell, who, when he isn't teaching at the Latin School, is writing editorials for a Boston newspaper, and when he isn't doing that he is writing skits for well known clubs around town.

Tom Heffernan recently purchased a house in the Ashmont section. We don't know whether or not it is christened yet.

Fred McDermott is an attorney in the Rationing Division of O. P. A., while his partner, Fred Harkins, holds forth in the State Office of the same organization. The class of 1927 always got blamed for everything, including many things that didn't happen, at Jefferson, Mass. So now, if you are cold, hungry or thirsty; if your wife scolds you for not bringing home the bacon; if you have to walk the floor at night with Junior who has been deprived of his evaporated milk; if you have to spend your time figuring out how to break in on the butter line and not the morning line; in short if you have any peevishness at all, blame the two Freds.

Dr. Bill Fitzgerald, Ph.D. variety, is chairman of the Committee on Defense Activities of the Catholic Library Association. His group recently published a Victory Book List for the armed forces. While speaking of book lists, have you any Catholic books or magazines around the house? Why not send them to some chaplain of your acquaintance, or to the Catholic Chaplain at some Army Camp, or Naval, or Air Training Station?

Leo Keefe, who has gone up the military ladder the hard way, is now a lieutenant colonel in the Army. He visited Boston in January.

Major Jimmy Dunford is called the "Father Duffy" of the Salomons, doing splendid work over there.

☞ Our Annual Mid-Winter Reunion was held at the Hotel Lenox, Saturday Evening, December 6, 1942. A gathering of 40 classmates were present and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Father Harney, S.J., was the guest speaker. The highlight of the evening was the pledging of a $25 War Bond by each of the forty members present, to be given to the College as a class gift, a token of our fifteen years graduated. The names of the pledges will be sent to Father Rector on March 1st. Pledges from the other members of the class are most sincerely welcome. The following procedure may be used: if you have a payroll deduction plan where you work in buying bonds, just notify the paymaster to issue the next bond in the name of Boston College and have it returned to you; then send the bond to Father Rector with the notation, "1928 Class Bond Gift." Those that do not have this plan, may arrange to buy a bond direct in the most convenient way for them, and send it along to the college. May I have your pledge?

Lt. John Henry Morris, U. S. N. R., and Lt. Joe Doyle, U. S. N. R., attended the Class Reunion, looking very trim in their uniforms. John has completed his indoctrination at Quonset, Rhode Island, and has returned there for a special assignment. Dr. Joe is stationed at Beacon Street and the Chelsea Naval Hospital.

Our returned card system tells us that Lt. Emery J. Zirpolo is stationed at Williams Field, Pilot Training School, Chandler, Arizona.

William O'Toole of Brighton and Walter Gaudet of Hyde Park are located at Fort Devens.

"Vic" Newton is assistant field director of Red Cross at Camp Edwards. Arthur Dawney, Roxbury, is in the U. S. Army Signal Corps.

Charlie Deveney is being prepared at the U. S. Naval Torpedo Station, Newport, Rhode Island.

Lt. Joe Green, now a "First Laue" is on the staff and faculty of the Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Virginia.

Do you ever think of writing to these fellows?

Tony Russo is manager of the Star Theatre, St. Johnsbury, Vermont.

The class expresses its deep sympathy in the deaths of their fathers to Bernie McCabe, Ken Minihan, and Father Frank Wilkie, S.J.

Fred Moncewicz is an instructor at the Georgia Pre-Flight School.

Father Garrity has been a patient at St. Elizabeth's. Something about a hernia.

EUGENE L. McLAUGHLIN

33 Westover Street., West Roxbury

Quite a number of our classmates are chaplains in the Armed Service. Father Joseph Mahoney is stationed at Camp Meade, Maryland. Father George McHugh is at the Harvard Chaplains' School. Several others have already volunteered for the service and are awaiting call to active duty.

Don McDonald and Vin Roberts represented our class at the Orange Bowl.

The annual banquet was held as usual at the Lenox and a good crowd turned up. To President Ken Brown we offer a belated "thank you" for a very pleasant evening. The 1942 American League Baseball picture and the football pictures of the highlights of '42 were thoroughly enjoyed by all. We will have to admit, however, that Tom Conroy's slides and witty accompaniment stole the show.

Father Joseph Connell, S.J., was present at his first banquet with the boys and seemed to enjoy himself. We enjoyed seeing him, at any rate, and hearing some of his experiences in Iraq. Joe is a member of the Jesuit Mission band stationed at Iraq. At present he is living at the Jesuit Mission residence, 45 East 78th St., New York City, while studying Arabic.

Charlie Stack is overseas. One guess is India.

Lt. E. Francis O'Day was married to Miss Alice M. Heslin of Lowell in December. He is in the Navy, stationed in Boston.

Ed McGann, past president of the Boston Public Welfare Employees' Association, has transferred to the Auditing Department at City Hall.

JOHN J. CONVERY

15 Forest Avenue, Everett, Mass.

Over 50 members of the class are in some branch of the armed forces.

Dave Hockman is with the Army Air Corps in some foreign country. Thanks must be given to his mother for her reports on the 1930 men of Cambridge.

At the Holy Cross Supper Dance were seen Charlie Murphy, Joe Howard and Lt. Larry Mullen, Army.

Joe Mirley is working for the government. Internal Revenue.

Lt. Irving Stockpole of the Army Air Corps (Cryptographic Dept.), is now on foreign soil.

Father John Cosgrove's brother, James, solemnized his first Mass at St. Joseph's Church, Quincy, in January.

Jim Mooney is in the Army, stationed at Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Paging Paul Mahony. John Groden was home for a short furlough from Key West, Florida. Get his address from his sister. Thanks for the note.

Adrian Edwards is in the Army, stationed out West. Dave Ronan is also in the Army.

Bill Butler is the proud father of two children.

Lt. Joe McCabe is stationed at Chapel Hill. Reports are he is doing a great job there.

A former classmate, Joseph E. Gill, has gone right up the ladder. He has been made a Lieutenant Colonel, stationed at Miami Beach.

(ED. NOTE—John Convery has been commissioned a Lieutenant in the Navy, undergoing his indoctrination period at Chapel Hill. The reporting for the class has been done by his wife. The suspicion arises that she has been doing it all the time).

135 Medford Street, Arlington

Tom O'Loughlin is stationed at Camp Crowder, Missouri, while Henry Leen last reported from Pecos, Texas. Major Pat Raftery has been assigned to the office of Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C.

Father Ernie Pearsall has been seeing a large part of the country. The Lieutenant has been transferred from Fort Custer in Michigan to Camp Phillips, Kansas.

Arthur Conway is at the Naval Air Station at Los Alamitos, California.

Ensign Ed McAleer may be reached at Hotel Houston, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Eugene Smith has been commissioned a Lieutenant (s. g.) in the Navy Reserve. He probably will be on active duty in April.

Congratulations are in order for John Sullivan. He has been appointed assistant district attorney of Suffolk County.

1932

JOHN P. CONNOR

28 Dickenson Road, Brighton

Because so many of our classmates are in the service, no reunion was held this year.

Your correspondent wants to take this opportunity to brag about his new heir, John Paul, Jr., born October 4. An All American B. C. star in 1962.

They finally caught up with Ed Gallagher. He was married in January at St. Clement's Church, Boston, to Miss Priscilla Phelan of Boston. Lt. Paul J. Goode, U. S. N. R., is located at the Hotel Oakland, Oakland, California.

Richard J. Connolly is now in the Army. He is at Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Received a very interesting letter from Bill Connor. He is in the "Armed Guard," in charge of the gun crews on the merchant ships, recently returned from Scotland and England.

Father Dan McColgan is a professor at St. John's Seminary.

Pete Sanford is a hackey referee, officiating at the Garden and the Arena.

Edward W. Burke has been promoted to Captain in the Army Air Corps. He has been stationed at Carlisle Barracks, Penn.

Mike Vodoklys is an ensign in the Navy.

Lt. James L. Hayden is engaged to Miss Mary F. Sullivan of New Bedford. According to latest reports Jim is stationed in Maine with the Army Air Forces.

Fred Donovan has been attending the Army Air Force School at Seymour Field, N. C.

1933

JAMES M. CONNOLLY

180 Savin Hill Avenue, Dorchester

Frannie O'Brien is now at Boca Raton Field, Florida, in the Radio Branch of the Air Force.

Dr. John Sullivan has given up his practice at Gallivan Boulevard, Dorchester, to enter the Army Medical Corps at Camp Davis, N. C. John recently gave a lecture on psychiatry which made quite a hit at Camp.

Father Bouvier, S.J., writes that John

Clancy is overseas. His address is, American Red Cross, U. S. Marine Corps, Unit 45, Postmaster, San Francisco, California.

Father Thomas Eovacious came on from Pennsylvania for the Cross game.

Dr. Jim Flanagan is a Lieutenant in the Navy Air Corps at Jacksonville, Florida.

Lt. Dennis Ryon was in Boston in January on furlough. He is stationed at Fort Custer, Battle Creek, Michigan.

1934

DANIEL I. CRONIN

866 East Fifth St., South Boston

 The sympathy of the class is extended to the family of Frank Gattorna. Frank and his bride of a few months were victims of the Coconut Grove fire.

Jim Mullin is a Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps and has been assigned as an instructor at the pre-flight school at Maxwell Field, Alabama.

Rev. Charles F. Downey was a member of the class recently ordained at St. John's Seminary. Father Downey celebrated his first Solemn Mass at St. Gregory's, Dorchester on January 17th.

First arrivals at the households of Jim Flavin and Tony Lacamera were both girls. Jim is a probation officer at the Boston Municipal Court, Tony a feature writer for the Hearst papers.

Tam Doley is teaching at the Ford School in Sudbury.

Joe Danavan, only member of the class to specialize in optometry, has given up his teaching position at the Massachusetts School of Optometry and has opened an office in Mattapon Square.

Latest member of the class to enlist in the Army, Tom Fadden of Brighton. Tom Ward is a development engineer with the Goodyear Company in California.

Daniel Driscoll received his commission as a Second Lieutenant at Fort Benning, Georgia, in January.

Joseph Burke, S.J., is stationed at Gonzaga University, Spokane, Washington. He is teaching chemistry there. He did not state whether he was ordained.

1935

Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, entered the Navy Reserve. He is a Lieutenant (j. g.), stationed at Newport, R. I.

Jim Landrigan is a member of the Signal Corps. He is in North Adams at a radio school.

Joe Donovan recently received an appointment to a fine position with the OPA. Joe has two children and makes his home in Jamaica Plain.

Ensign Bill Keone was sworn into the Navy Reserve in December. He is stationed in Noroton, Conn., where he is studying Communications.

Lt. Ed Barry and the Mrs. were home for a short furlough during the Christmas holidays. It was their first trip to Boston since their wedding last April. Ed is still stationed at Camp Polk, La.

Gerald Cournoyer is an instructor at Allison Motors in Indianapolis.

Lt. Eugene Hurley, Army, was married in December to Miss Eleanor R. Quinn, of Lawrence. He is stationed at Fort Adams, R. I.

Joe Ryan was commissioned a Second Lieutenant at Fort Monroe, Va., in January.

Sergeant Bill Landrey was married to Miss Rita M. Dwyer of Belmont in January. He is stationed in Taunton.

Francis A. Sullivan in the Navy is attending officers' training school at Cornell University.

John E. Crowley has been promoted to Major. He has been in England for the last 10 months.

Bill Baxter is a Second Lieutenant, in the Army Air Corps. Commissioned in January at Miami.

1936

JOSEPH P. KEATING

10 Coolidge Avenue, Natick

 All classmates are requested to remember in their prayers Donald MacMillan and his wife, both of whom lost their lives in the Coconut Grove disaster last November.

Bob Cahill, formerly with the Greater Boston Community Fund, joined the Army last June. Having completed his basic training period, he is now in Officers' Training School at Camp Lee, Virginia. Ed Ochs of Newton received his wings and Second Lieutenant's commission at the Miami airfield recently. Before entering the Air Force Ed was New England representative for a Chicago business outfit.

Lieutenant (j. g.) Ted Galligan, attached to the Naval Air Base at Jacksonville, was home on furlough in January. Al Rosen received his Ensign's commission in the U. S. N. R. last March. He has completed special three-months courses at both MIT and Harvard and is now stationed at Seattle as a Radio Officer. Al, a B. C. Law grad, and formerly with U. S. Patent Office in Washington, was expecting an early assignment to sea duty. Ensign Tom Keane is taking advanced studies at the Naval Training at Princeton. Also at Princeton were Ensign Tony Flynn, who had been stationed in Washington, Ensign Maurie Fitzgerald and Ensign Vinnie Wenners.

Joe Jones is a Second Lieutenant located in the Adjutant's Office in the nation's capital (That's Washington, lods, not Casablanca). First Lieutenant Joe King has been serving abroad for some time, as has Second Lieutenant Joe "Jacko" Killion. Ensign John Geary is serving at sea. Joe Harvey joined Uncle Sam's growing Army late in December. Incidentally Joe, who was with the Boston Globe, risked his life in a Coast Guard boat during an early winter gale to get a swell story for his paper.

Dr. Dan Shea is House Physician at the Quincy Hospital and is one of the most popular doctors in the hospital. Dan, now married, makes his home in Quincy.

Lt. John G. Burke has been assigned to Signal Corps Duty with the Army Air Force at Drew Field, Tampa, Florida.

John D. Hausman was ordained at the Cathedral January 6. Father Hausman is stationed at the Blessed Sacrament Church, Saugus.

Father Jim Keating is now stationed at the House of the Angel Guardian in Jamaica Plain.

George Mohoney is somewhere overseas.

1937

STEPHEN A. WITHAM

8 Framar Lane, Wellesley Hills

 Frank "Dusty" Durst writes from 150 Broadway, New York, that he is connected with the Agricultural Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. He was married last April to Miss Mary V. Garlick of Pawtucket, R. I. Frank's brother Hugo W. Durst, S.J., a scholastic at Cranwell Prep assisted at the ceremony. George D. Cunning was the best man. (It sure was a 1937 affair!) George is in the Army and is now stationed at Presque Isle, Maine. Many thanks for the note, Frank,—keep us up to date on yourself.

The writer looked up from his table in a Utica, N. Y., restaurant last November to see the Old Bald Eagle, Joe Walsh, walk in. It was a grand meeting and we spent the rest of the evening hoshing over the Walsh, Blitz, Pzenny, Tortolini doings of the post. At the moment Joe was with a plumbing contractor working up in Rome, New York, on a government construction job. He is still single but admitted there was a little lady down in Poughkeepsie. His deferment expired at the end of November so he may be in Uncle Sam's Army now.

It is a coincidence that we have news of both of our '37 defense men. If we remember correctly Joe played left defense and Jack Burgess was over on the right lane. A letter arrived from Jack (written on November 8, 1942) stamped "Received from H. M. Ships" and "Active Service Afloat." His real address is: Sec. Lt. J. J. Burgess, R. N. V. R., H. M. S. London, c-o G. P. O. London. He has met several B. C. boys in England and he hopes that others will find him via the above address.

Jim Droney has written to give the up-to-the-minute dope of our Lowell classmates. We were glad to hear that Jim has recovered from his serious illness. He has become associated with the Lowell Sun but hopes they let him out of "4F" soon (he has been sentenced to 4-F for two years) so that he get into the thick of things.

Art Kennedy is interning at St. John's Hospital in Lowell. He has a j. g. commission in the Navy and will go on active duty as soon as he completes his internship.. Dr. Hugh Ma- honey, now a j. g., is aboard a destroyer somewhere in the Atlantic. He studied medicine at George Washington University. A short furlough made it possible for him to see his first B. C. game in six years, B. C. vs. H. C.—poor Hugh. Jimmie Quigley left the Lowell post office and enlisted in the Army Air Corps a few months back and is currently training to be a pilot somewhere in the South. Jerry Bouvier is living in Hartford, Conn. A lawyer, he is in the legal department of one of the insurance companies. He is married, and the pappy of "x" little Bouviers. That's a swell roundup, Jim, we are all indebted to you!

Ensign Jocko Conlon is at Woods Hole and Ensign Leo Coveney is still out at Bermuda. Ensign Joe Whelton will leave U. S. shortly for an advanced base (sorry—can't publish it). Ensign Johnny "Hi-O" Galvin is out in the South Pacific. Ensign Tom Soint is still with the Bureau of Naval Personnel in Washington, D. C. The engagement of Miss Jeanne Rita O'Brien of West Medford to Ensign John P. Fleet was recently announced. John's addresses were given as Gloucester and Balboa, Canal Zone. Another recent engagement was that of Miss Helen M. Kontrim of South Boston to Burchill T. Sweeney.

John J. Linnehon and Joseph L. Quinn, C.S.P., were ordained at the Cathedral January 6. Father Linnehon is stationed at the Immaculate Conception Church, Solem.

Jim Dorsey is at Camp Croft, South Carolino, Tom, in Colorado.

1938

JAMES E. DAVIS

17 Argyle Street, Dorchester

 Latest reports about Lt. Henry Maffeo, U. S. M. C., are that he is stationed at San Diego.

John C. Gately, Jr., is engaged to Miss Eleanor M. O'Neill. The ensign has been stationed at the Hotel Nausemond, N. O. B., Norfolk, Va.

Bob Power was married to Miss Catherine P. Clancy in November. He is in the Army, at the Staging Area, New Orleans.

Lt. Bob McGinnis is married and has a young son.

Bill Bergen is reported to be a corporal, instructing trainees at Camp Lee, Va., while Jock Groney is an Ensign in the Coast Guard. Last heard from he was off for San Francisco.

Al Cunningham is with the Social Security office in Boston. He is married and justly proud of his two children.

Joe Horne is at Fore River, but not for long. He plans to enter the F. B. I. After that, wedding bells.

Tom Corcoran is a "deck leader" at Fore River.

Frank Ryan is said to be happily married and busily engaged in his duties as a state policeman. Remember Pearl Harbor? Tom Bowler should! He is a Lieutenant (j. g.) and was aboard the U. S. S. West Virginia when it was bombed by the Japs.

Frank Goode, our '38 baseball captain, is now instructing Aerial Navigation at Camp Blanding, Florida

Leo Downs became the father of a baby girl recently.

Francis "Red" McMahon received his M. D. from B. U. last May. At the same time he was commissioned a Lieutenant (j. g.) in the Navy Medical Corps. He is stationed at the Chelsea Naval Hospital.

Also interning at the Boston City Hospital is Tom McNomara, who graduated from Tufts Medical.

Mal Burns received minor orders last fall at Notre Dome Seminary, New Orleans.

George Clinton passed the Bar, and is a practising attorney in California.

Lt. Tony Di Natole has been transferred from Michigon to Florida.

1939

WILLIAM V. FEENEY

40 Hampstead Road, Jamaica Plain

 The prayers of the class of '39 are offered up for the souls of Captain Ed Foley and Ensign John O'Toole who gave their lives for their country. To their parents we can only tender our sympathy and the earnest assurance that these boys will live forever in our memory.

This column received a card from Midshipman Fred Malloy, who is on the U. S. S. Prairie State at New York City. Fred has some strong opinions on the merits of this column. How about the rest of you expressing yourselves by mail? Teaching at M. I. T., where he took his Ph.D. in Physics, is Rand McNally. He is married to the former Miss Margaret McKenna of Dedham and is living in West Roxbury.

Lt. Bob Fee, who is now in Australia, is still an internationalist. He married Miss Merna O'Fee of Melbourne.

Tom McDovitt is married to the former Miss Gail Cranin, sister of John Cranin of '38 (who, Mr. J. E. D., is now in San Francisco with the Army Air Corps). Tom is in charge of disbursements for the treasury department of the Commonwealth. The line forms on the right, boys. No pushing, please!

Pete Kerr is training at the Coast Guard Academy in New London.

John Ryan, who received his M. D. from Tufts Medical, is serving his internship at the Worcester City Hospital.

Lt. Paul Devlin of the Army Air Corps is reputed to have seen action at Casablanca.

Dick Coner is with the Army somewhere in California.

Lt. John Murray is a physical instructor at an airfield on the West Coast. His wife is the former Miss Mary Ferrandi of Milton.

Arthur Morrison is with the infantry in South Carolina.

Capt. Alfred Mahoney, U. S. M. C., has been in the Pacific area for ten months. He is a specialist in artillery.

Charlie Mogueire is with the M. P.'s at Fort Devens.

Midshipman Ed Mahoney is finishing his training at Columbia.

On duty at the Brighton Marine Hospital is Lt. (j. g.) Ed Twigg of the U. S. Public Health Service. He obtained his M. D. from Tufts. He is married to the former Miss Ruth Doherty of Allston and has one son. Lt. Daniel J. McFadden, U. S. M. C., was married to Miss Virginia M. Breen of Belmont at Quantico, Va., Christmas Day.

Ensign Herbert Regan, Navy, is engaged to Miss Loretta Murphy of West Roxbury.

Ed Phelan was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Army. He attended the Officers' Candidate School, Anti-Aircraft Artillery, Camp Davis, N. C.

It is a little late but Chief Petty Officer Andrew Lentine, Navy, was married last February to Miss Lillian De Benedictis of Medford.

Fred Tyrrell reported recently. He is with the Army Air Corps, a navigator, stationed at the New Castle Air Base (Ferry Command), Wilmington, Delaware. He writes that Lt. Anthony Shtogren is stationed at Albany, Ga., and that Lt. John Gollogher is at Craig Field, Selma, Ala. They both are meteorologists.

Capt. Raymond Coyne, U. S. M. C., is engaged to Miss Margaret T. Keefe of West Roxbury.

Ensign John J. Kelley, U. S. N. R., was married to Miss Elizabeth A. McCarthy of Newton in December.

Paul Anderson, Donald Clifford, James E. Connelly, John Lawler, Vincent Lucid, Alfonsus Polladino, James L. Sullivan and Charles Piscia were ordained at the Cathedral January 6.

Sgt. "Ducky" Harris reports from California also, and he, too, has been tromping around in the desert. Ronnie Corbett, cooch at Cheverus High, claims to have the best basketball team in Maine.

"Des" Cronin, one of the few to correspond with the Alumni News, was home for a few days. Let's have a few more like "Des" so we will know where you all are and how you are doing.

Paul Salipante, attired in his Ensign's uniform, was seen rushing through Washington Street Station last week. Next time, Paul, we shall have to compare notes.

"Monk" Maznicki, fourth leading scorer in the Pro League is all set to join Butch Kissell at Chapel Hill.

of Texas where he begins his training for the Navy Air Corps.

A party for Jim O'Neill, now Ensign O'Neill, U. S. N. R., brought out a few '42rs. Ted Mulvehill, Lt. J. G., Ned Martin, Harry Brown U. S. C. G., but the surprise came late when P. F. C. Gene McGillicuddy dropped in all the way from San Francisco. Jim, together with Jack Hefferman, also an Ensign, is stationed in Florida. John Phelan is our lone representative at the Harvard Business School now that Saul Zusman has left for the Army.

Congratulations to Lieutenant Paul Regan, who having entered the Army as a private, transferred to the Air Corps and last week graduated as the top man of his class.

Ray Chaisson, who played a stellar game of hockey for the Olympics, leaves soon for V-7, so the Olympics are now lacking all maroon and gold influence since Fishy Dumond, the people's choice, is now in the Army.

Corporal Gerry Danovan, U. S. A., stationed in Colorado, was able to make his brother's wedding, which "happened" to fall on the same day as the Cross game.

Corporal Bill Charlton, U. S. A., is in a censored part of the world, but wherever he is, it is cold.

Lieutenant Jim Malone, the popular red headed secretary of the class, who is stationed at Guadalcanal, reports that B. C. is the favorite topic of conversation down there. In a recent letter home Jim reports:

"I believe I received as fine an education as was obtainable. I learned to live a good Christian life and never let anyone tell you that it isn't worth while. The peace of mind I find here in the midst of struggle is worth more than anything in the world. To know that Christ is fighting for us is like being an impregnable fact."

Private Jim McNulty, stationed in Georgia, managed to get to the Bowl game.
